Delly	* Failed server components are not under support and a support ticket for services will be required to repair.	Late fees may be assessed.
HPE	* Hardware updates are not available from the manufacturer.
Red Hat	* No longer receive updates.	Late fees may be assessed.
Veeam	* Backup, replication, and restore jobs stop functioning. * Configuration changes and new actions in the console are blocked. * Operations resume only after renewal.	A 30-day grace period is typically provided, during which all functionality continues to work. Post-grace period, all operations stop. Late fees may be assessed.
VMware	* Subscription-based licenses cease to function upon expiration. * Example: For vSphere, hosts enter a "disconnected" state; VMs continue running, but cannot be managed through vCenter.	Please see attached letter regarding penalties and fees.
